Be able to attend at least one meeting/month.

Be willing to respect others.

Live in St. Tammany Parish and have a Library Card.

Be willing to participate in TVC discussions and voice opinions.

New applicants must submit completed application by the first of the month before they can attend a meeting.

What is the Teen Volunteer Council?

- The Teen Volunteer Council (or TVC) is a group of teens that meet at least twice/month for two hours to 1) advise and assist the librarian with development and implementation of library services, and 2) receive volunteer service hours.
- There are two TVCs: an East TVC, which meets at the Slidell branch, and a West TVC which meets at the Madisonville branch.

Perks include snacks at meetings, opportunities for free advance copies of books, the volunteer hours, meeting new friends, and the end of season party!
