WHY: It's a great way for local teens to gain job experience, meet new people, earn service hours and acquire valuable knowledge that will help with schoolwork and skill building.

WHERE: Teen Volunteers are trained for routine, recurring tasks and/or occasional special events at the Causeway, Covington, Madisonville, Mandeville, and Slidell, and South Slidell Branches.

WHEN: Teens are required to volunteer for at least three weeks (need not be consecutive) between the first day of summer reading in May, and the middle of July. Teens sign up for 2-hour shifts up to three times a week or as needed.

HOW: Volunteer Applications for the 2024 Summer Reading Volunteer Program will be accepted between April 15 - May 4. Once approved, applicants must register on the online event calendar for a one-time Orientation Training Workshop, scheduled for May 18, 28, & 29th at various branches.
