Crank - Smith, F. - LBOC meeting 4-28-25.pdf

Dear Ms. Thompson,

In regards to "Crank", I found this book online at our public library in 2023 in the Young Adult section. That is why I wrote a statement of concern on it. The library staff may have moved it into the Adult section, just as you have many other books with a statement of concern written. The author, Ellen Hopkins, has many books of the same nature or content in the Young Adult section. When my statement of concern was written, it was not in the Adult section.

Many books in the libraries of St Tammany Parish should not be in the collection of Young Adults. Hence, that is why there is a new section called "New Adult," where those books by authors like Ellen Hopkins can find a place. I would suspect that is why you chose to make a new category. Your fiction collection has books that are very accessible to children of any age. This is an example of why many of us feel we cannot trust the people who are in control of our libraries. There is very little doubt in my mind that our public libraries communicate and are involved with the ALA.

To all of you involved with our libraries, this problem is not about saving the libraries in this state or other states. It is about saving our children. Children and young teens do not need to clutter their minds with this smut, and that's what books like "Crank" and all the others that have a statement of concern are about. Saving our children from immorality and perverted thoughts that are in books such as these. You know as well as I do that children and teens like to act out.

Yes, reading is very enjoyable, but certain subjects should be avoided until the reader has a mature mind. Pornography seeps into all types of people and ages. IT is a very big problem in the United States and other countries as well. Why do our public libraries want to drag our children and young teens down by providing it to them? Even people who don't believe in God should be against it.

Whatever the reason is, the libraries have been given a reprieve. This doesn't mean we won't be watching. Our Children and Teens are worth it!!!!

Sincerely,
