LIBRARY ANNOUNCES NEW PROGRAM PARTNERSHIP WITH LSU AGCENTER

ST. TAMMANY – The St. Tammany Parish Library has partnered with the LSU AgCenter this year for “A Taste of Herbs and Spices” program.

AgCenter nutrition agents work with community partners to distribute promotional flyers about an herb or spice along with a free sample of the featured flavoring. Each month features a different one. Flyers include a recipe with nutritional information and background about the featured herb or spice.

All St. Tammany Parish Library branches have flyers and a sample herb or spice on display for interested patrons to take. So far this year, the Library has featured the spice Turmeric, and the next spice will be Whole Dill Seed. Patrons should visit a local branch to grab a sample and recipe flyer while supplies last.

Visit sttammanylibrary.org/adults for more information on library-sponsored adult programs.
